'CHICK' EVANS IS GOLF CHAMP BECAUSE OF PATIENCE, ENERGY

After Losing Several Championships Because of His Poor Putting, He Disregards Smiles of Competitors and Patiently Perfects His Game Until He is Able to Win Twice.

By FRANK J. MENKE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—"Chick" Evans stands out today as the most striking example of what a man can accomplish who has courage and patience, who believes in himself and never ceases trying to reach his goal.

The Chicago golfer holds the national open and the national amateur championships. It is the first time in the history of American golf that any player has won both crowns at the same time. And that "Chick" should do it makes the feat all the more remarkable.

Eight years ago he began the golfing world first became cognizant of the existence of Charles Evans, Jr. He entered one of the tournaments, played well in his first attempt, but failed to win. Year after year he has entered the championship battles, and each year, until now, he has been beaten.

Evans' attempts to gain the title several years ago began to excite considerable comment. The experts agreed that he was a powerful driver and that he was better than the average with his four shot from but they laughed at his attempts at putting. There was cause for a bit of kidding, too, because Evans until a year or so ago was a miserable player when on the green.

Evans was ridiculed. "Chick" became known as "Alto Ran Evans." The ridicule heaped upon Evans hurt him. Of an extremely sensitive nature, he never could become caloused to the joshing, to the good natured sneers. The constant beatings he got in his attempts to win the championship also hit him hard. Ninety-nine men out of 100 would have quit long ago rather than suffer longer the slings and arrows of golfers.

But Evans was made of different stuff. He fought on. He recognized his weakness on the green and he spent days and days in bettering his putting. Slowly he improved, and he said to himself that no matter how well he could putt in practice he would never be in the critical moments of a long match.

And then, while the knowing folks in golf predicted that "Chick" Evans would continue to start only to "crack" at the finish, "Chick" went into the national open championship, pitted himself against the greatest golfers in America and won through sheer grit.

Evans Reaches Greatest Heights. Everybody was surprised—and a bit more.

A few weeks afterward the national amateur tournament was staged with "Chick" Evans as one of the competitors.

"What's come over 'Chick'?" queried the folks. "Does he think that he can crack off the amateur honors, too?"

That's just exactly what he did. Playing superbly throughout, he worked his way into the finals and then, with comparative ease, defeated Robert Gardner, the 1915 champion.

And now the golfing world has come to the realization that "Chick" Evans, the once "Alto ran," has through hard work, through courage, patience and an unflinching confidence in his own ability, risen to the greatest heights ever attained by an American golfer.

Endurance Golf Champion. Charles M. Daniels has fractured all existing endurance golf records. He did it in his private and home hole course near Long Lake, N. Y., in the Adirondacks.

Daniels played 228 holes in 15 hours and eight minutes, walking 47 miles a day.

The "endurance champion" began operations at 2:25 a. m. on June 22. Weather conditions were ideal. At 3 a. m. he played for a 15 minute breakfast, while at 4 p. m. he stopped for a few minutes to stretch a bit of stiff.

Daniels played 23 full nine hole rounds and had completed the third hole on his 251st turn when it became too dark to continue. Only once during the day did Daniels confess to being a bit tired and that was about 7 p. m.

One of the remarkable features about Daniels' game is that his scores for the last two rounds were within one stroke of his best mark for the day. He made a 36 in his first hole and 37 in second, fifth and 12th rounds. He made 37 in his 21st and 22nd rounds, showing he was playing a game almost as strong at the end as when he began.

The worst score was 42 on the 22d round. On the 15th he made a 19, on the 21st a 32 and on the 22d a 31. All his other scores were under 40. Daniels' average per round was 35.3.

General Satisfaction Is Expressed Over Bout; Oct. 2 the Next Date.

circles and believe that he can beat anything of his weight in the army ranks.

Nothing but commendation for the Monday night's bouts is being heard among the fans. They are all well satisfied with the results of the bout.

These boys put on a whirlwind six rounds on Labor day and the fans want to see more. Captain Chouinard believes that the fans want more rather than a drawn out affair and he has signed these men for ten rounds.

The final will be again between Sears and Dougherty. Sears got the best of the first round, but Dougherty got the better of him in the second round and many thought that a draw would have been a better decision. It is likely that the semi-final will be for eight rounds and if this distance is set, chances will favor Dougherty.

That Columbus Bout. And now we have something about that Columbus bout between "Young" Allen and "Chuck" Keeney, of troop 1 of the same regiment. The Columbus Courier report says that the bout was the best ever held at Columbus and that the decision of a draw was fair.

One Columbus fan writes: "As the meeting went, I am almost of the opinion for I haven't heard who won. I guess 'Chuck' must have had Allen in a bad way in the fifth round with his fast footwork and I guess Allen must have been all out of spirits and too tired to send the results to the press."

"Nevertheless, we all enjoyed the fight as it was a good clean battle. Both men showed themselves supporters of good, clean sport and were not afraid to mix things. The bout had a whirlwind finish. We all hope that these boys will meet again and know that 'Young' Allen will not slight the press by failing to send in the return."

Big Army Field Meet. The Camp Stewart athletic meet on Saturday is now open to all national guardsmen on the border and this meet should certainly be the best that has been staged in the southwest. The national guard regiments now here here are: Tom Harvard, 1st Cavalry, 2nd Cavalry, 3rd Cavalry, 4th Cavalry, 5th Cavalry, 6th Cavalry, 7th Cavalry, 8th Cavalry, 9th Cavalry, 10th Cavalry, 11th Cavalry, 12th Cavalry, 13th Cavalry, 14th Cavalry, 15th Cavalry, 16th Cavalry, 17th Cavalry, 18th Cavalry, 19th Cavalry, 20th Cavalry, 21st Cavalry, 22nd Cavalry, 23rd Cavalry, 24th Cavalry, 25th Cavalry, 26th Cavalry, 27th Cavalry, 28th Cavalry, 29th Cavalry, 30th Cavalry, 31st Cavalry, 32nd Cavalry, 33rd Cavalry, 34th Cavalry, 35th Cavalry, 36th Cavalry, 37th Cavalry, 38th Cavalry, 39th Cavalry, 40th Cavalry, 41st Cavalry, 42nd Cavalry, 43rd Cavalry, 44th Cavalry, 45th Cavalry, 46th Cavalry, 47th Cavalry, 48th Cavalry, 49th Cavalry, 50th Cavalry, 51st Cavalry, 52nd Cavalry, 53rd Cavalry, 54th Cavalry, 55th Cavalry, 56th Cavalry, 57th Cavalry, 58th Cavalry, 59th Cavalry, 60th Cavalry, 61st Cavalry, 62nd Cavalry, 63rd Cavalry, 64th Cavalry, 65th Cavalry, 66th Cavalry, 67th Cavalry, 68th Cavalry, 69th Cavalry, 70th Cavalry, 71st Cavalry, 72nd Cavalry, 73rd Cavalry, 74th Cavalry, 75th Cavalry, 76th Cavalry, 77th Cavalry, 78th Cavalry, 79th Cavalry, 80th Cavalry, 81st Cavalry, 82nd Cavalry, 83rd Cavalry, 84th Cavalry, 85th Cavalry, 86th Cavalry, 87th Cavalry, 88th Cavalry, 89th Cavalry, 90th Cavalry, 91st Cavalry, 92nd Cavalry, 93rd Cavalry, 94th Cavalry, 95th Cavalry, 96th Cavalry, 97th Cavalry, 98th Cavalry, 99th Cavalry, 100th Cavalry.

Football Practice Begins. IN "BIG NINE" COLLEGES. Chicago, Ill., Sept. 20.—Football practice opens officially at the "big nine" conference colleges this afternoon. Conference rules prohibit coaches from taking charge of the eleven until September 26. At Chicago university a big turnout of candidates is expected.

SEVEN different teams have had a crack at the leadership of the American league this year. Only the Athletics have failed to get up in front. In all, 24 changes in the leadership have been noted.

REDS outthit the Dodgers on Tuesday but their recklessness on the paths cost them the victory. The Braves kept in the pennant scramble by beating the Cardinals. The Cardinals are in Brooklyn today and the Reds clash with the Braves.

CHICAGO gamblers seem inclined to favor Detroit for the American league pennant and the Tigers are posted as favorites in the Windy City books at 8 to 5 while the White Sox and Red Sox are even at 3 to 1.

BECAUSE of the big army review on Thursday, it is unlikely that there will be any Army league games. This afternoon, the Massachusetts teams have a regular field day, three Bay State aggregations being on the card. The First Massachusetts artillery may be unable to keep its engagement because of orders for a "bike" but the hospital corps vs. Ninth Massachusetts game should be worth while.

ENTRIES for the track and field sports at Camp Stewart have extended until tonight at 6 o'clock and athletes with any of the national guard regiments on the border may enter.

HEINIE ZIMMERMAN has certainly been playing some great ball for the Giants. He contributed two runs and two hits in the first game on Tuesday and a hit in the second contest. By the way, Benny Kauff is hitting the pill these days. He got two home runs on Tuesday.

MUST FILE CERTIFICATES IN EACH OF THE COUNTIES. Santa Fe, N. M., Sept. 20.—Chairman D. H. Gilmanwater, of the Republican state committee, has received an opinion from attorney general Frank W. NEW MEXICO MAN PLEASED. WITH HIS ADORABLE SON. A letter has been received by the Associated Charities from a man at Kennedy, N. The boy has been with him for over six months, and Mrs. Hooper of the Associated Charities received a letter from him in which he said: "Keriguez is doing fine, and I expect him to be one of the best boys around this country, and if you can get me two more boys later on I will be very glad to have them. I am coming with my family some time this winter to El Paso, and will come sure and pay my respects to you for your kindness, so that you can see what a fine boy I have."

MABEL TRASK IS $10,000 WINNER

Volga Wins Horse Review Futurity; Russell Another Winning Favorite.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 20.—Mabel Trask, second to Peter Scott last year in the Hester Columbus stake for trotters, won this $10,000 event Tuesday afternoon, the richest feature of the Columbus Grand Circuit meeting, and did so without effort. The Cox mare was a 18 to 1 choice. Donna Clay was the hope of those who wagered against Mabel Trask.

The favored Volga won the horse review, taking a new record of 2:57 1/2 in keeping clear of Harrods Creek in the second heat. The Louisville colt carried Volga to the half in 1:08, and after whipping through the stretch when Blinson Salk challenged him for the place.

Fred Russell was the third winning favorite of the afternoon. The first two heats went to Beth Clark, Fred Russell being moved the first time and making a break going away in the second mile. The snow-driven gelding won the second heat in 2:44 1/2. Each of the next two came easily.

Blinson Salk and Sister Ella were must in favor of the 215 trot, but the winner turned up in Ridgebrook, owned at Youngstown, Ohio.

"BECK'S" Amen Corner BY "BECK."

BASEBALL fans have snapped up the suggestion that a series of five games be arranged between the Feldmans and the Seventh infantry and it is likely that the series will be arranged. The Dallas-El Paso series does not open until October 14 and there is room for the extra series, even with the Army league games.

WHITE SOX made a grandstand finish against the Athletics on Tuesday and put three runs across the platter in the last of the ninth, winning, 5 to 4. This kept the Chicago team a game and a half behind the Red Sox, who beat the Tigers, 3 to 1, and a half game behind the Detroiters. The Tigers and Red Sox have a tough series at Detroit and while these two teams are battling, the White Sox should gain a bit.

GIANTS, by winning a doubleheader from the Pirates on Tuesday, made it 14 straight victories. The Pirates, who have been "pie" for the Giants in the last two series, will play at Philadelphia today and the Phillies, who have been finding the Cubs a hard proposition, should strengthen their position in the National league race. The Cubs took the measure of the Phillies on Tuesday, even with Alexander pitching.

CITY'S SURPRISE TO CITIZEN

Chaplain Schall Says Boys Will Go Home Praising City; Open Meeting.

"National guard troops will return to their homes filled with praise for El Paso, her people and her hospitality," chaplain Charles Schall, of the Tenth Pennsylvania infantry, told the Presbyterian men of the army and the city at the First Presbyterian church Tuesday evening at the get-together meeting of the army and city Presbyterian men.

"We came here expecting to see a small city in a hot, baking desert," the chaplain added. "What we found was the surprise of our lives and we are telling our friends back home of our discovery down here, on the border. Your young men are even trying to take advantage of your city back home with them and, if you parents of El Paso girls would only tell your daughters to be a little more receptive, they would succeed."

Open Meeting. The meeting was an open one of the Mens club of the First Presbyterian church for the men in the national guard and regular army on the border. There were more than 100 men in uniform present, including several chaplains, 10 of whom were from the various regiments. Among those who attended the meeting was Sgt. Fred Zimpher, of Columbus, Ohio, who is city official there and is with the Fourth Ohio infantry. The guests were met at the door of the clubhouse by a committee of the Mens club and, after being introduced were taken into the big club assembly room where seats had been provided for 150 and which were all taken and many standing when the program started.

Glee Club Sings. Rev. Charles L. Overstreet, pastor of the church, presided and told something of the work of the club and the church for the soldiers and invited the men to attend the regular services and meetings of the club. The Fourth Ohio glee club sang a number of songs. There was a tenor solo and music club singing. The Tenth Pennsylvania glee club also sang their camp songs and the church's quartet, composed of Miss A. H. Goldstein, Mrs. Robert L. Holley, James G. Mary, and Fred Billings sang. Mrs. Goldstein sang a beautiful solo and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Andrews sang a duet. The accompaniment was played by F. C. Evans, who came here recently from Waia.

Historical Talks. Following chaplain Schall's response to the address of welcome Judge P. E. Haniel, gave an interesting talk on early El Paso history and of his experiences here in the old days. Norman Walker, president of the club, gave a summary of the Mexican developments during the past five years and closed with a brief talk on the work of the Mens club.

After the program, cake and coffee were served in the dining room of the church by the members of the Aid society.

A PROMINENT VIRGINIA MAN WRITES VERY STRONG LETTER

And tells an interesting story about his troubles.—Is seventy years old.

On January 13th, 1915, Mr. Edgar Jones, a prominent citizen of Norfolk, Nottoway Co., Va., wrote Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga., as follows:

"I was taken sick a week or two ago with a severe cold, with shortness of breath and swelling in bowels, with much gas. I have a nearly insupportable cough, much mucus from my liver and stomach, the phlegm is yellow and white, cough is worse at night. I am 70 years old but have always been temperate in all things, do not use tobacco or liquor. Have always been very sensitive to the change of weather. About 3 months ago, I would have a bitter taste in my mouth at night. I bought a bottle of S. S. S. a few days ago and since taking it, I haven't that bitter taste quite so bad."

On June 17th, 1915, Mr. Jones wrote again as follows:—"I beg to say I am entirely well. I felt better after taking S. S. S. a day and continued to improve without any set back."

Again, on June 14th, Mr. Jones wrote:—"I am proud of my health and will be pleased for suffering humanity to know of your valuable medicine. It is in our greatest wealth and without it, money is of no pleasure because we cannot enjoy it."
